

Laser Energetics Presents Production Dazer Laser[®] GUARDIAN to over 40 Municipalities and Various Industry Trade Shows

MERCERVILLE, N.J., October 20, 2010 -- Laser Energetics, Inc. (Pink Sheets: LNGT - News) today reported that it has presented the first full production version of its Dazer Laser[®] GUARDIAN to over 40 municipalities and agencies, including Law Enforcement groups, City Police, County Sheriffs, Corrections, Gang Enforcement, Riot Control, University Police Security, State Liquor Control, and the National Guard. All of these groups are engaged in becoming customers of Laser Energetics for the purchase of the Company's Dazer Laser[®] ocular distraction devices.

Robert D. Battis, Founder, President & CEO of Laser Energetics, stated, "Customers come from the presentations that we conduct, as well as the trade shows that we attend in conjunction with General Dynamics. We have a new and exciting technology that demands that we educate our future customers so they will understand the best way to deploy the technology for each tactical situation. We have several municipalities that are currently looking to deploy the Dazer Laser[®] - the Ultimate "Non-Lethal - Less Violent[™]" weapons serving humanity."

Additionally, Laser Energetics has been presenting inside the General Dynamics booth at the following trade shows; SpecOps Warfighter Expo, Infantry Warfighter Conference, Modern Day Marine Expo, as well the upcoming Association of U.S. Army (AUSA) Expo slated for October 25-27th, 2010 in Washington, D.C. The Dazer Laser[®] will also be demonstrated at the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) Conference from October 23-27th, 2010 in Orlando, FL and the Joint Integration Program (JIP) held from November 1-3rd, 2010 in Las Vegas, NV. Furthermore, the Company anticipates releasing a new Founder's Message prior to the end of October to update all of its shareholders.
